

ap. Sec.		Chap. Sec.
	BALTIMORE AND SUSQUEHANNA RAIL ROAD COMPANY—
	etc. and shall be invested with the same rights as the Baltimore and Susquehanna R. R. Co., &c.	" 7
5	So soon as the lateral R. Road is completed one half its distance from the beginning, all loans, &c. of the State shall cease, etc., and no right which the State now has over the main stem to be considered as released, &c.	" 8
1 1	Act to have no force until assented to by stockholders, &c.	" 9
	Not to issue any note, &c., as a currency.	" 10
	The location of said road and running of cars, &c. not to be nearer than 300 yards to any powder works, &c.	" 11
2	BALTIMORE AND WESTMINSTER R. R.— See Baltimore and Susquehanna R. R. Co.
3	BALTIMORE CITY— The lien of mechanics for work done, &c., on any buildings in, shall only be preferred to any other, &c., subsequent to the commencement of the same, &c., as provided for in 2nd section of 1838 ch. 205, provided that the contract for furnishing, &c., shall have been made with any architect, &c., except the owner, &c., of lot &c., the person so doing work, &c., not entitled to lien, &c., unless within sixty days after such work &c., he give notice, &c.	176 1
4	If owner &c., cannot, on account of absence, be furnished with notice, &c., in that case claimant, &c., in presence of competent witness, and within said sixty days to place notice upon door, &c., and file claim, &c., in the office of clerk of Baltimore County Court, &c.	" 2
5	Provisions of this act and the original, made applicable in every case in which, &c. dwelling house, &c., is repaired.	" 3
6	Machines erected to be subject to lien, in like manner, &c.	" 4
	Persons furnishing work or materials,	