

BALTIMORE CITY—

Chap Sec.

&c., to be entitled to all benefits, &c.	"	5
Provisions of this act to have effect in Carroll, Harford and Baltimore Counties, &c.	"	6
Acts inconsistent repealed:	"	7
So much of third section of act of 1844, to provide for the division of, into twenty wards, &c., as requires the election of members of Second Branch, &c., repealed, and that at the election to be held in October next for members of Second Branch, to be chosen to serve for two years, &c.,		238
The provisions of the act of 1845, ch. 209, to provide a summary mode of recovering possession of lands, &c., held by tenants at will or for years repealed, so far as relates to, &c.		401
BALTIMORE COPPER CO.—Incorporated &amp;c.,		286
BALTIMORE COUNTY— Any person having claims for work done, &c. about the erection of any building in, which have been or may be filed and recorded under the provisions of act of 1844, ch. 226, entitled to all the benefits given by said act, provided all other requisitions of the said act be complied with.		9
Sheriff of, allowed the same fees, &c. for attendance, &c. in Baltimore county court, as are allowed to the sheriff of Baltimore city, commissioners to levy, &c.	23	1
Commissioners of, to levy in favor of sheriff, of all fees. &c.	"	2
Act in force after passage.	"	3
September term of the court of, to commence on second Monday of September, and Jan. term second Monday of January, instead of the first days of said months, after the passage of this act, summons, &c. to be returnable on said days.	88
Justices of the orphans' court of, authorised to direct the funds arising from the personal estates now, &c. administered upon in that court, &c. who died intestate, and left no legal representatives, to be		