

INDEX.

Chap. Sec.

UNION COMPANY AND CUMBERLAND COAL-MINING COMPANY—

This act and act, ch. 334, passed March 28, 1836, to continue and be in force until repealed, etc.

“ 5

UNITED STATES—The consent of the State given to, to erect fortifications on Soller's Point Flats, and jurisdiction ceded when the United States shall have acquired title from the owners of the lands, etc.

214

Jurisdiction over the sites of Forts Madison and Severn ceded to, etc. this State to retain concurrent jurisdiction so far that all civil and criminal process, etc. may be executed, etc.

215 1

Property exonerated from taxes, etc.

“ 2

USILTON, JOHN—Time extended to complete the collections of, etc.

247

USURY—In any suit brought in any court, etc. upon any bond, etc. in which any person shall seek to avail himself, etc. of the provisions of the act of 1704, against excessive usury, it is incumbent on such person specially to plead the same, and to state in said plea and set out the sums, etc. actually due upon such bond, etc. estimating the principal with interest at 6 per cent.

352 1

Upon the trial of any issues upon such pleas, jury to ascertain the amount, etc. and to render verdict, upon such verdict, court to render judgment, etc.

“ 2

Upon the trial of any such, in Chancery, etc. chancellor or judges, etc. to ascertain the amount, etc. and decree, etc.

“ 3

If at time of pleading, or upon the trial, etc. defendant tender to plaintiff the sums alleged to be due and costs up to the time of plea or trial, and upon such finding by the jurors, etc. it appear that the sums actually due, etc. did not exceed in principal and interest and costs, at the time of plea, the sum tendered, then the plaintiff shall be adjudged to pay costs accruing after tender.

“ 4

The third section of act of September session, 1704, chapter 69, repealed; re-

1

2

3

4