

cents, with interest from the sixth day of April, eighteen hundred and forty-four; and whereas, it also appears that of this debt, the said John McCollum, Michael Sullivan, Murray Shilling, David Keefer and John Henry Hoppe have paid the sum of two thousand three hundred and three dollars and ninety-two cents of principal, and the further sum of one hundred and fourteen dollars interest; and it further appears that a portion of the taxes due from the people of Carroll county, on account of which the said judgment was recovered, remain uncollected; and it is right and proper that authority should be given to the said sureties to collect to their own use such uncollected taxes, so far as may be necessary to reimburse them the sum thus paid—therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said John McCollum, Michael Sullivan, Murray Shilling, David Keefer and John Henry Hoppe be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to collect from the taxable inhabitants of Carroll county the State taxes for the year eighteen hundred and forty-one, in the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth election districts thereof, and which may now remain uncollected, to the amount in the whole not exceeding the sum of two thousand three hundred and three dollars ninety-two cents, with one hundred and fourteen dollars interest thereon, and apply the same to the reimbursement of themselves as aforesaid.

Authorised to collect.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the power and authority conferred by the first section of this act shall remain and continue for the term of one year from the passage of this act, and for no longer.

In force one year.

CHAPTER 59.

An act to make valid the acts of Charles Travers, Justice of the Peace in and for Dorchester County.

Passed Feb. 11, 1846.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the provisions of the act of assembly, passed February twenty-first, eighteen hundred and forty-five, entitled, an act to make valid the official acts of certain justices of the peace, and the district courts in and for the State of Maryland, be and they are hereby extended so as to make valid the official acts of Charles Travers, justice of the peace in and for Dorchester county, up to
