

roughfares of the said town, by others on foot or otherwise, to impose fines not exceeding ten dollars for any one violation of said ordinances, and to detain said horse, or horse carriage, stage, cart, wagon or other vehicle, until the said fines are paid or secured to be paid.

CHAP. 81.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said president and commissioners shall have power and authority in their said ordinances, to provide for the immediate arrest of said person or persons so offending, without warrant, when in the judgment of the president, or any two of said commissioners, the delay necessary to the issuing of a warrant would be dangerous to the peace and quiet of the town, or the lives, limbs and property of the citizens thereof, and when it shall appear that the offender or offenders is, or are intoxicated so as to render it unsafe to permit him or them to drive through the streets of said town, to provide for the removal of the said horse and vehicle without the limits of said town, or for the deposit thereof in some place of safety, until the said offender or offenders have recovered his or their sobriety.

Authority to arrest without warrant.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the said president and commissioners, shall also have power and authority to pass ordinances, prohibiting the parading and indecent exhibition of any stud horse through the streets of said town, and to impose a tax not exceeding twenty dollars on all menageries, theatrical exhibitions, or other public shows within said town.

Exhibition of stud horses, &c through the streets prohibited.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That if at any election for commissioners of said town hereafter held according to the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, it shall appear by the certificate of the judge of said election, that any two or more persons voted for as commissioners have received the same number of votes, so that there is no choice for an entire board, but a vacancy in one or more seats at said board, it shall be the duty of those who are returned as duly elected; provided, there shall be as many as five so duly elected, to assemble immediately, and having qualified as commissioners of the said town, to proclaim a new election to supply the vacancy or vacancies occasioned by the said failure to elect, giving at least five days notice, and if it shall not appear that five of the persons voted for have been duly elected according to the provisions of the original act, to which this is a supplement, or if the persons duly chosen commissioners shall fail to assemble and proclaim a new election for the space of five days, then

Election

Proviso

Give five days notice.