Passed Feb.

WHEREAS, in the acknowledgement of a deed from Preamble. Isaac Henderson and his wife Henrietta, Samuel Benson and his wife Matilda, Henry Henderson and his wife Ann, all in the State of Missouri, to John U. Dennis in the State of Maryland, the said deed was executed and acknowledged before two justices of the peace, instead of before a judge of a court of records and of law, or before a judge of the supreme or circuit or district court of the United States, as directed by the act of eighteen hundred twenty-five, chapter fifty-eight, section first-therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Made valid. That the said deed be, and the same is hereby made as good and valid in law to all intents and purposes whatsoever as if the same had been regularly executed.
