

person or persons, with or without consideration, upon any event or contingency dependent upon the drawing of any ticket or tickets, or number or numbers of any ticket or tickets in any lottery whatsoever, shall, for each of said offences, be punishable as is provided for by the first section of this act in regard to the offences there described. CHAP. 110.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the employment, by any licensed vendor or vendors, or any other person, of any negro or colored person, to do any of the matters or things prohibited by this act, or in any way to assist in doing them, shall be punishable upon indictment and conviction thereof, by a fine of not less than fifty, nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, and by imprisonment for not less than twenty days, nor more than six months. Punishable by fine, &c.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That, in case any person licensed by the commissioners of lotteries to sell domestic lottery tickets, shall commit any of the offences mentioned in this act, it shall be the duty of said commissioners forthwith to annul his license or any license in which he may be interested, in addition to which, he shall be liable to be prosecuted as is by this act provided; and it shall also be the duty of said commissioners to issue to the contractors to whom said license shall have been originally granted, another license for the unexpired term thereof without charge. Duty of commissioners to annul license.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That no proceeding in any court or before any justice by indictment, action of debt, bill in equity, or otherwise instituted, upon the suggestion of the commissioners of lotteries shall be quashed, set aside, dismissed or delayed for any defect or form whatsoever. No proceeding &c. set aside for any defect in form.

CHAPTER 110.

An act to provide for the re-building of Governor's Bridge over the Patuxent River. Passed Jan. 19, 1847.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John T. Hodges and Roger Tydings of Anne Arundel county, and Walter W. W. Bowie and Benjamin M. Duckett of Prince George's county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to assess the value of re-building the Governor's bridge over the Patuxent river. Commissioner appointed