CHAPTER 166.

An act to repeal the act of eighteen hundred and forty-five, chapter ninety-four. Passed Feb. 27, 1847.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Repealed
 That the act passed December session, eighteen hundred and forty-five, chapter ninety-four be, and the same is hereby repealed; provided, that this act shall not be construed so as to repeal that portion of said act of December session, eighteen hundred and forty-five, chapter ninety-four, which prohibits negro camp-meetings and other out-door protracted negro meetings, and declares them unlawful and tumultuous. Proviso.

CHAPTER 167.

A supplement to the act entitled, an act to provide for the instruction of youth throughout this State. Passed Feb. 26, 1847.

WHEREAS, sundry petitions and memorials have been presented to the General Assembly of Maryland, praying the division of school districts in Talbot county, owing to the inconvenience in some cases of the present location of primary school houses growing out of the increased population and change of circumstances in said districts; and whereas, it is supposed that the commissioners of Talbot county can better decide upon the propriety and necessity of such divisions and alterations by the examination of witnesses and personal inspection of said districts if necessary; and whereas, doubts exist as to the authority of said commissioners under existing laws to divide said school districts—Therefore, Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Upon petition in writing, to appoint three judicious commissioners.
 That the commissioners of Talbot county be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered and required, upon petition in writing, of a majority of the taxable inhabitants of any school district in Talbot coun-
