

CHAP. 172. be entitled to use the powers and privileges incidental to such corporations.

May hold real and personal property.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall have power to take and hold property, real and personal, not exceeding in value at any one time, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, which property shall never be divided among the members of the said corporation, but shall descend to their successors, to be applied for the relief of sick and distressed members of said corporation, the education of children of deceased members, and for the promotion of these objects generally.

May alter and amend by laws

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall have power to alter and amend the by-laws thereof at pleasure; provided, that such alteration and amendment do not in any way conflict with the laws of the State of Maryland, the laws of the United States, the laws of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of the State of Maryland, or the National Division of the United States.

Issues forbid.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall not be allowed to issue any note, token, device, scrip or other evidence of debt, to be used as a currency.

Enure for 40 years.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act of incorporation shall enure for forty years from the passage hereof, and that the Legislature reserves to itself the right to alter and annul the same at pleasure.

Right reserved.

CHAPTER 172.

Passed March 3, 1847. An act relating to the College of Saint James in Washington County.

Not lawful to issue license.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful for the clerk of Washington county court, to issue a license to any person or persons, to sell ardent spirits within two miles of the college of Saint James in Washington county, without an order in writing from one of the judges of said court, who is hereby authorised to grant such order, if he shall be satisfied, from the representations of respectable citizens in the neighborhood of said college, of the necessity and propriety of granting such license.