

CHAP. 180.

CHAPTER 179.

Passed March 5. 1847.

An act entitled, an act to repeal the act of December session, eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter two hundred and thirty-eight, entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act authorising the Levy Court of Frederick County, in their discretion, to levy a sum of money therein mentioned.

Repealed.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the supplemental act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter two hundred and thirty-eight be, and the same is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 180.

Passed March 2, 1847.

A further supplement to the act entitled, an act for making certain roads in Baltimore and Harford Counties, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and fifteen, chapter forty-eight.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to the General Assembly, that the Baltimore and Harford Turnpike Company desire to make a further extension of the turnpike road on the Bel Air route, which extension when made, will be an excess over the twenty miles of roads required to be made in and by the original act incorporating said company; and whereas, said company is deterred from making any extension without a prior release to, and waiver of, on the part of the commissioners of Baltimore and Harford counties, of all claims and demands to them accruing under acts of Assembly heretofore passed, for and on account of expenses by them incurred in building bridges, and in making and opening roads on the bed of the contemplated route of said turnpike as heretofore located; and whereas, the said extension is much desired by citizens of said counties in the vicinity thereof, and upon their application to the commissioners of their respective counties, said claims and demands might be waived, but doubts have arisen as to the power and legal competency of said commissioners to release and waive the same without an enabling act of the General Assembly passed therefor—Therefore,
