CHAPTER 194.

Passed March 4, 1847.

An act for the expenditure of the monies appropriated for keeping in order the Public Roads in Baltimore County, and for other purposes.

Periods of expending road monies.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, all monies appropriated for keeping in order the several public roads in Baltimore county, shall be expended between the first day of April and the first day of November, in each and every year, according to the provisions of the second section of this act.

How to be expended, &c.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That two-thirds of the whole appropriation on the several public roads in the said county, shall be expended between the first day of April and the first day of June, and the balance of the appropriation between the first day of June and the first day of November, in each and every year, and if any supervisor or supervisors shall fail to comply with the provisions of this act, he or they shall, upon complaint, forfeit and pay to the commissioners of said county, for the use and benefit of said county, an amount equal to the annual appropriation on said road or roads, to be recovered before a justice of the peace in said county.

Penalty of supervisors.

Penalties—when collected—how expended.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all forfeitures collected shall be expended upon the roads from which such fines accrued, and upon complaint of twelve respectable citizens, living near and using any road, of the inattention and bad management of any supervisor or supervisors in repairing or mending any road or roads, the said commissioners shall not re-appoint such supervisor or supervisors for the space of two years, and not then, unless it is in evidence clearly, that the said delinquent or delinquents have become qualified to take charge and keep in order such road or roads as may be assigned him or them.
