

tioned between the two counties of Frederick and Carroll by the levy court of Frederick county, if they deem it expedient, raising and appropriating, by a levy, as authorised by the original act, fourteen hundred dollars; and the commissioners of the tax of Carroll county, if they deem it expedient, shall raise, by a levy aforesaid, six hundred dollars, of the two thousand dollars called for by the original act to which this is a supplement, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAP. 222.

CHAPTER 221.

An act to authorise the Levy Court of Frederick County to insure the Public Buildings of said County. Passed March 5, 1847.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Frederick county be, and they are hereby authorised to insure the public buildings in the county in the Mutual Insurance Company of Frederick county, or in any other insurance company they may select, and that the said levy court, by and under the name of the Levy Court of Frederick County, are hereby authorised and empowered to execute all such notes for premium, and to confess any judgment upon such premium note as may be requisite, and to levy upon the assessable property of the county, all such sum or sums as may be necessary, from time to time, to pay the premium required, or the interest on the premium note, or any assessment which may be made on the premium note secured by judgment, according to the charter of the Mutual Insurance Company of Frederick county, should the insurance be made by that company.

Authorised to insure the public buildings.

Levy on the assessable property.

Take effect.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the passage hereof.

CHAPTER 222.

An act to divorce Anna M. D. Shields, of Talbot County, from her husband John V. Shields. Passed March 6, 1847.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Diverced. That Anna M. D. Shields, of Talbot county be, and she