

CHAPTER 227.

CHAP. 227.

An act to incorporate the Woodsborough Turnpike Road Company. Passed March 4, 1847.

WHEREAS, by an act entitled, an act to incorporate the Frederick and Woodsborough Turnpike Road Company, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter fifty-four, a company was incorporated with power to construct a turnpike road from the city of Frederick to the town of Woodsborough, in Frederick county; and whereas, by the said act, the said company was required to commence the said work within two years, and to complete the same within five years from the passage of the said act, otherwise the right of said company to said road to revert to the State of Maryland; and whereas, by an act entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act to incorporate the Frederick and Woodsborough Turnpike Road Company passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-two, chapter one hundred and eighty-eight, power was given to the said company to construct a portion of the said road mentioned in the original act of eighteen hundred and thirty-one; and whereas, the said company did, by virtue of the said supplement, open and construct the said portion of the said road, and have ever since, and do now enjoy the privileges and immunities thereof; and whereas, it is now desired that the remaining portion of said road from the bridge over the Monocacy to the town of Woodsborough as aforesaid, shall be opened and continued by a new and independent company, the same having been abandoned and reverted to the State of Maryland, not having been completed within the time fixed by the first mentioned act—Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new and independent company be, and the same is hereby incorporated, by the name and style of the Woodsborough Turnpike Road Company, and that the said company is hereby invested with all the powers, privileges, rights and immunities so far as the same regards that portion of the road which lies between the Monocacy bridge and the town of Woodsborough, which were granted to, conferred upon, and vested in the Frederick and Woodsborough Turnpike Road Company, by the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter fifty-four, herein referred to.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the capital stock of said company, shall be twenty thousand dollars, in shares of twenty dollars each.
