

THOMAS G. PRATT, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1846.

hereafter appointed to act under any existing regulation of the association, shall continue so to do according to provisions of the association heretofore made, and such regulations shall, till lawfully altered, be deemed as valid and obligatory, as if made since the passage of this act.

Not answerable for any losses, &c.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That no member of the association shall, in his individual capacity, be answerable for any losses, deficiencies or failures of the joint fund or debt of the said institution, nor for any more or larger sum or sums of money whatever, than the current amount by him payable into the common fund of the society.

Issues forbid. Right reserved.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained, shall be so construed as to authorise or empower said corporation to issue any notes, token or certificate of debts to be used as a currency, and that nothing herein contained, shall be so construed as to deny the right to the General Assembly of Maryland, to repeal this act at its pleasure.

CHAPTER 232.

A supplement to the act entitled, an act for draining a Branch or Swamp called Bee Tree Swamp, lying in Caroline County, passed November session, eighteen hundred and twelve, chapter one hundred and fifty-seven.

Passed March 8, 1847.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That when the directors shall have been elected, according to the provisions of the first section of the act to which this is a supplement, and when said directors shall have proceeded to the discharge of the duties assigned them, according to the provisions of the third section of said act, they and their successors shall have full power and authority to levy and collect from the proprietors of said land, their agents or tenants, any sum or sums of money that may appear to be his or her due proportion, for the cutting out and cleansing said ditch or drain, the same to be collected as county taxes is now collected by law, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Authority to levy and collect.
