

CHAPTER 242.

CHAP. 242.

An act entitled, an act to authorise a Lottery to raise a sum of money to make a Turnpike Road from the town of Westminster, in Carroll County, Maryland, through Taneytown, in said county, and through Emmittsburg, in Frederick County, to the nearest and most practicable route to the Pennsylvania Line.

Passed March 8, 1847.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for Isaac Baugher, Christian Correll, of Frederick county, and John Swope, William Frizzle and Sterling Galt, of Carroll county, that they jointly be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, with full power and authority, or a majority of them, to propose a scheme or schemes of lotteries, from time to time, and dispose of their tickets, or shares of tickets, and draw lotteries, from time to time, until they shall have raised sixty thousand dollars, free and clear of all expenses whatsoever.

Commissioners appointed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That before any scheme or schemes shall be proposed, or any ticket or tickets shall be sold, or any lottery or lotteries shall be drawn, the commissioners aforesaid named in this act, under this law, shall give their bond or bonds to the Treasurer of the State of Maryland for sixty thousand dollars, with security, to be approved of by one of the judges of Carroll county court, and said bond or bonds to be recorded in the clerk's office of said county court, with condition that they will faithfully cause the amount of money intended to be raised by this act, to be applied to the making of a Turnpike Road from the town of Westminster, in Carroll county, through Taneytown, and through Emmittsburg, in Frederick county, to the nearest and best route on the Pennsylvania line.

Give bond for $60,000.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the commissioners appointed by virtue of this act, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to sell and dispose of their grant, by sale or contract, as they may deem proper, to any contractor or contractors of lotteries in the United States, and such contractor or contractors of lotteries shall have and enjoy all the rights and privileges as are conferred on the commissioners named in the first section of this act; provided however, that before such contractor or contractors shall so avail themselves of said rights and privileges, they shall give bond to the State

Power to sell &c.
