

ty, to wit: for the first election district, William Allen, John C. Fulton, Daniel M. Cunningham, Washington Dorney, Ralph S. Lee and James F. Magness; for the second election district, William Murphy, Noble Cannon, Everett S. Hughes, Courtney Cole, Kent Mitchell and John H. Mitchell; for the third election district, Alexander Norris, James Lee Amos, John E. Bull, Aquilla P. Moors, Benedict H. Hanson and Owen Michaell; for the fourth election district, John B. Henderson, James W. Tolley, John Smithson, Roger Streett, junior, Thomas Bay and James B. Alderson; for the fifth election district, Samuel Harper, John Daugherty, Daniel Whiteford, James Wilson, (Nine Branch,) John Street of John, and Samuel James; for the sixth election district, A. L. Raymond, George Wareham and Robert R. Vandiver, to hold their offices until the next general election for delegates in said county, where the voters in each election district shall elect a number of commissioners in each district equal to the number hereby appointed; and the election shall be conducted according to the mode heretofore provided by law for electing school commissioners in said county, and at every general election thereafter, held for delegates in said county, an election, as herein directed, shall be held for such school commissioners.

CHAP. 252.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if any vacancy occurs in the office of school commissioners from any cause, the orphans court of said county shall appoint a proper person to fill such vacancy, until the next general election, and no person shall be considered as elected school commissioner, unless he receives a majority of the whole number of votes cast for delegates; and upon there being a failure to elect school commissioners in any election district as herein provided for, the orphans court shall appoint suitable persons to be school commissioners thereof; if the commissioners herein appointed, or any others hereafter appointed, agreeable to the provisions of this act, shall fail to accept, within thirty days after said appointment, it shall be the duty of the said orphans court to appoint proper persons to fill such vacancies; the commissioners appointed by virtue of this act, shall not be entitled to demand any compensation for services herein required of them.

Orphans court to appoint.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of such commissioner, appointed in pursuance of this act, to designate to the schoolmaster or masters of his neighborhood, such poor children as may be taught at

Commissioners to designate scholars,