

- CHAP. 283. premium annually paid shall exceed three hundred dollars; and in case of the death of the wife, before the decease of her husband, the amount of the insurance may be made payable, after her death, to her children, for their use, and to their guardian, if under age.
- Books open to members. SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the book of said company shall be open to the examination of any member thereof, during the usual hours of business.
- To officers and agents. SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That the affairs of said company shall, at all times, be open to the inspection of such officers or agents of the State, as may be selected for that purpose by either branch of the Legislature.
- Amount of policies. SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That no policy shall be issued by said company until the applications for insurance shall amount to two hundred thousand dollars, and that the trustees shall have the right to purchase, for the benefit of the company, all policies of insurance or other obligations issued by the company.
- Issues forbid. SEC. 18. And be it enacted, That this corporation is prohibited from issuing any note, certificate, scrip, device or evidence of debt, to be used as currency.
- Right reserved. SEC. 19. And be it enacted, That this act shall endure for twenty years from its passage; and that the Legislature reserves the right to alter or annul this act of incorporation at pleasure.

CHAPTER 283.

Passed March 10, 1847. An act to vest in Amos A. Williams, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, certain property therein mentioned.

Preamble, WHEREAS, Amos A. Williams, of the city of Baltimore, did, on or about the tenth of April, eighteen hundred and forty-three, apply for and obtain the benefit of the insolvent laws of the State of Maryland; and whereas, the High Court of Chancery of this State, on the application of said Williams, made subsequently to his application for the benefit of said insolvent laws, and to his discharge thereunder, and on its appearing to said court, that all the debts scheduled by said Williams, at the time of his application for the benefit of said laws, were paid by him, ordered and directed the trustees appointed for the benefit of the creditors of said Williams, under his said application to reconvey to him the property conveyed