

to them by said Williams at the time of his said application, which conveyance has been made by said trustees in pursuance of said decree; and whereas, it is just and reasonable that all and every property which may hereafter be acquired by said Williams, shall belong to him without vesting in any trustee or trustees under said insolvent laws—Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all and every property which said Amos A. Williams shall or may hereafter acquire, or which shall or may accrue to him by gift, descent, or in his own right, by bequest, devise, or in any course of distribution, shall not vest in any trustee or trustees of said Williams, under said insolvent laws, as provided by the second section of the act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, chapter two hundred and ninety-three, but shall vest in said Williams, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, subject, however, to the payment of any debt or debts, if any such there shall be, to which said property would be liable in the hands of such trustee or trustees.

CHAP. 284.

Not to vest in trustee, but in Williams.

CHAPTER 284.

An act relating to the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Baltimore. Passed March 9, 1847.

WHEREAS, the act to which this is a supplement, passed December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, designed and meant to embrace the president and directors of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Baltimore, and extend the charter of said Bank until the end of the year, eighteen hundred and fifty-six; provided, that corporation should be subject from and after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and forty-five, to all the rules, restrictions, limitations and provisions declared to be the fundamental articles of the constitution of the corporation, called the Merchants' Bank of Baltimore, and the provisions of the 11th, 12th, 13th and 15th sections of the act creating said corporation; and whereas, it is apprehended that the said provision has the effect wholly to repeal the fundamental articles of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Baltimore, as contained in the original charter, passed eighteen hundred and ten, and the acts supplementary thereto, and supplies others inappli-
