

CHAP. 296. toinette is desirous of having the control and management of her own property; and whereas, the said Antoinette Williams has petitioned the Legislature that the said property shall be entirely absolved and discharged from the trust aforesaid, so far as the necessity for a trustee to manage and dispose of the property under said deed is concerned, which petition has been executed by the said Antoinette, in the same forms of law which are necessary for femmes covert to resort to, for the purpose of conveying their estates—Therefore,

Annulled.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said deed of trust, dated on the eleventh day of June, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-four, and executed as aforesaid be, and the same is hereby henceforth annulled, and the said Antoinette Williams be, and she is hereby authorised henceforth to treat and dispose of said property as though she were a femme sole, subject to all the limitations and restrictions and reservations of the aforesaid deed of trust, except as to the necessity of a trustee.

CHAPTER 296.

Passed March 8, 1847. A further supplement to an act entitled, an act for the protection of Mechanics and others in Allegany County, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter seventy-six.

Benefit secured. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all repairs done to dwelling houses, mills or other buildings, in Allegany county, and for all machinery hereafter placed in, and used in any building already erected in said county, and for materials furnished for such repairs or machinery, the party or parties so furnishing machinery, materials or doing repairs as aforesaid, shall have all the benefits intended to be secured to mechanics and others, by the original act and its supplements, to which this is a further supplement, and is

File claim with clerk. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any person entitled to such lien or liens, under the provisions of the original act, or its supplements, or his act, shall file his, her or their claim or statement with the clerk of Allegany county court, within nine months from the time of performing the work, or furnishing the materials or machinery for such building.