CHAPTER 297.

An act to incorporate the Lulworth Iron Company.

Passed March 1, 1847.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Samuel M. Semmes, John G. Lynn, Henry Thomas Weld, Jonathan Guest and Robert Samuel Palmer, and all and every person who shall become associated with them in the manner hereinafter prescribed, shall be, and they are hereby incorporated, by the name of the Lulworth Iron Company, and as such, shall have succession, and may have and use a common seal, and be able and capable to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any court of law or equity, and may also have, use, exercise and enjoy all the powers, privileges and rights, proper and necessary for carrying on the manufacturing of iron, and of articles of which iron is a component part, and for opening, working, transporting to market and vending the produce of their lands, mines and manufactories, and shall have power to take, purchase and hold all such property, real, personal or mixed, as they may require for the purposes aforesaid, and shall have power to make and enter into all manner of contracts in relation to the business and property aforesaid; provided, that the said corporation shall at no time hold or possess in this State more than five thousand acres of land, exclusive of the quantity which may be occupied as the bed of any road or roads which it may be found necessary to purchase or construct, and may, for the purposes aforesaid, have and exercise, except as restricted by this act, the right to make by-laws, rules and regulations, and all the rights, privileges and powers necessary to the objects of this act, and to the use, control and dis-
