

CHAP. 300. States, and having a guardian in such other State, District or Territory, duly qualified according to the laws thereof, and who shall have there given good and sufficient security for the faithful performance of his or their trust as such, or in words to that effect, and who, as guardian hath, or shall then have the custody of the person of such infant, then the court, under whose order or decree the sale or sales aforesaid may have been made, shall, upon the petition in writing of such guardian, setting forth the premises, and stating the entire amount of the personal property, including his portion of the proceeds of said sale or sales, made in this State as aforesaid, belonging to such infant, and also the amount of the income of the real estate, if any, of such infant, which hath come, or is likely to come into the hands of such guardian, and accompanied by a copy, duly authenticated, of the record of his or her appointment and qualification as such guardian, and of the bond or other instrument or security so given as aforesaid, verified as to the truth of the facts set forth in said petition by the affidavit of such guardian, and as to the sufficiency of such security, all things being considered by the affidavit of the chief clerk or prothonotary of the court, tribunal, or authority by whom such security was taken, or of some other disinterested and credible witness or witnesses; and upon the said court being satisfied of the truth of the facts set forth in such petition as aforesaid, and of the sufficiency of such security, order and direct the said trustee or trustees to pay, transfer or deliver said portion of the proceeds of the sale or sales made as aforesaid, which may belong to such infant, to such guardian, at such time, and in like manner as is provided by the laws of this State, in the cases where the said parties and infants are residents within the State.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any citizen of, or resident in this State, shall be prospectively entitled to any remainder, reversion or executory devise in said portion of the proceeds of the sale or sales made as aforesaid, upon the determination of the estate or interest of such infant therein, it shall be lawful for the said court, in its discretion, before giving such order or direction as hereinbefore provided, to require that such guardian, or some other person or persons, shall execute a bond to the State of Maryland, in double the amount or value of such portion of the proceeds aforesaid, with a surety or sureties, to be approved by said court, conditioned that the said portion shall, at the determination of the estate or in case of death or removal of the guardian, the court shall have authority to appoint another guardian, and to require the former guardian to give security for the faithful performance of his duty.

March 1847

to be approved by the court in case of the death of the guardian, the court shall have authority to appoint another guardian, and to require the former guardian to give security for the faithful performance of his duty.

Printed

March 1847
Execute Bond to the state.

Non-Resident

Penalty for violation

by him executed as other for