

CHAP. 317. if the same had been served upon the president and directors of said company.

Issues forbid.

Right reserved.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained, shall be so construed as to authorise or empower said company to issue any note, token, certificate or other evidence of debt, to be used as currency, and that nothing herein contained shall be construed to deny to the Legislature the right to repeal this law at pleasure.

CHAPTER 316.

Passed March 9, 1847.

To invest in real estate.

An act for the relief of the Infant Children of John Stevenson, of Talbot County.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Stevenson, of Talbot county be, and he is hereby authorised and empowered to invest in real estate in Talbot county, the proceeds of certain property belonging to his infant children in said county, sold by order of Talbot county court sitting as a court of equity; provided, said investment be reported to the judges of Talbot county court, and by them be ratified and confirmed.

CHAPTER 317.

Passed March 8, 1847.

Time extended.

An act for the relief of William H. Gilpin and Hiram McCullough, securities for James H. Price, late collector of taxes for Cecil County.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the time for the payment of the direct and income tax, and all taxes due the State for the year eighteen hundred and forty-four, by James H. Price, late collector for Cecil county, be extended to the first day of January, eighteen hundred and forty-eight; the State reserving to itself all its rights and remedies against said sureties, notwithstanding the provisions of this act; and that no proceedings shall be had upon the bond of the said James H. Price, late collector as aforesaid, until after the said first day of January, eighteen hundred and forty-eight; provided, that the said William H. Gilpin and Hiram