

member shall be ascertained, and in the event of such member or members shall fail, neglect or refuse to pay his, her or their proportion of such loss within sixty days from the time of ratification, it shall and may be lawful for the said society to issue an execution upon the said judgment or judgments so confessed by such member or members, for the amount of such assessed proportion, which amount shall be endorsed on said execution by the clerk, under the order of the president or secretary; and the said party against whom said execution may have been issued, shall forfeit all benefit under his, her or their insurance, until such assessment shall have been paid and satisfied.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That in all cases where the owners of slaves insured under this act, shall possess or hold no real estate, the said society shall be authorized to require the premium note of such person or persons to be endorsed or signed by such surety or sureties as shall be by them approved; which notes shall be subject to the assessments made in cases where losses shall be incurred; and in case the party shall refuse to pay the proportion of loss assessed on such note within sixty days after notice thereof, the president shall cause a judgment to be entered up on said note in the office of the clerk of the county where such person or persons may reside, and shall direct an execution to be issued on said judgment, and on such execution or executions the assessed proportion or proportions shall be endorsed, and the party against whom such execution or executions may or shall be issued, shall forfeit all the benefits of said society until such assessment shall have been paid and satisfied.

Persons having no real estate, sureties may be required.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That this charter shall be in full force until repealed by the Legislature.

In force until repealed.

CHAPTER 357.

An act relating to Foreign Corporations and their Agencies in this State.

Passed March 9, 1847.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of May next, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to act as the agent or agents within this State for any individual

Not lawful to act.