

Chap. Sec.

FISHERIES—A supplement to the act of 1845, ch. 148, making it lawful for proprietor or lessee of any, on the Potomac, to permit vessels employed by them in their, to be anchored opposite their respective shores, provided said vessels when so anchored not to interfere with existing rights of proprietors, &c. of adjoining shores.

87

FORD, E. B.—See Deputy, Joshua, &c.

FOREIGN CORPORATIONS AND AGENCIES

—From and after 1st May, 1847, not lawful for any person to act as agent for any individual not incorporated by this State, and authorised to make insurances, &c., or receive or transmit offers for insurance to principals, receive or deliver policies, although such individuals may be incorporated, &c., authorised by the laws of any other State, without license, &c.

357

I

License to be granted by the treasurer to any person applying, on paying $100 license to authorise, to effect insurance, receive, &c., policies, &c., for 12 months, &c.

"

2

Agent to pay half yearly to treasurer three dollars per cent. upon amount of premiums received, &c., and furnish on oath to treasurer half yearly on first Monday in January and July, a true list, &c., of premiums and pay over to treasurer the said sum of $3, on every $100 of such premium; in all cases where agent is a body politic, oath to be made by the president, &c.

"

3

Agent to give bond to the State before acting, with surety to be approved by Attorney General or deputy, &c., in penalty of $5,000, to render true list, &c., and pay said sum of $3,00, agent to transmit bond to treasurer to be filed; any agent offending, &c., to forfeit $500 for every offence; notwithstanding such forfeiture and payment, personally liable

FOREI

FORE

FOST

FOUR