

INDEX.

1846.

Chap. Sec.

PROMISSORY NOTES, &c.—

ter present law relating to recording deeds, &c., mentioned in the first section of this act,

61 3

The 14th section of the act of 1844, chapter 280, limiting the operation of act to the 1st of May 1848 repealed, and the original act and supplements continued in force until repealed, &c.,

“ 4

PUBLIC AUCTION—A supplement to the act of 1827, ch. 111, to regulate sales by,

288

All real estate, goods, wares, merchandise, stocks and every species of personal property exposed to sale by, in the city of Baltimore, except those mentioned in the second section of this act, subject any time struck off, to certain duties, &c.,

“ 1

All goods and other property belonging to the United States, or seized by any public officer for any forfeiture or penalty, or taken in execution, and all goods distrained for rent, utensils of husbandry, articles the growth and produce of the State, exempted from aforesaid duties, and may be sold in any part of the State, out of the limits of the city of Baltimore,

“ 2

All goods, &c., sold, to be struck off to the highest bidder, when auctioneer, owner or any person employed by them, be such bidder, said goods, &c., subject to same duties as if struck off to any other person; this section not to render valid any sale which would otherwise be deemed fraudulent, &c.,

“ 3

The same duties specified in the first section, shall be chargeable on all goods, &c., sold by auctioneer at public sale, on the day of his public auction,

“ 4

Every auctioneer appointed by virtue of the act of 1827, chapter 111 shall, within twenty days after first days of January, April, July and October, of the year when appointed, to render to one of the judges of the city court, a true