

Chap. Sec.

PUBLIC AUCTION—

account, in writing, of the monies for which any goods, &c., shall have been sold, &c., from the time of his entering into recognizance required by said act, &c., or from the time last account was rendered, &c., the days when sold, distinguishing the sales made by himself, or in his presence, and those made by partner or clerk, &c., setting forth the amount of goods, &c., sent to him, &c., for sale, and by him sold; the days on which sold, particularising the amounts of the duties chargeable on sales at auction, and make oath thereof, &c., and shall, within thirty days after rendering such account, pay such amount to the treasurer, and upon neglect to render account or pay the amount, to be liable to the penalties provided in the ninth section of the act of 1827, chap. 111, 288

5

Every auctioneer who, within the period limited for accounting, shall have made no sales liable to auction duties, shall make an affidavit of these facts before one of the judges of the city court, and transmit a copy to the treasurer, certified by said judge, within the same time that an account is required to be rendered by the preceding section, and the penalty for neglecting to make such affidavit the same as for neglect to make return, &c., “

6

The Governor not to nominate any person for auctioneer, who shall not have settled in full at the treasury for all accounts due on account of auction duties, &c.; this section to be in force from the passage of this act, “

7

In case any person commissioned as an auctioneer, shall neglect to take out a license, within twenty days after the commission is forwarded by the Governor, such commission to be null and void, and Governor to appoint some other person, &c. “

8