

CHAP. 51: soever, heretofore made or done by or to, the said John Smith, under his said original name shall be and remain in full force, effect and operation, and all promises, contracts, deeds and other lawful acts hereafter to be made or done by or to the said John Smith, by or under the name of John Charles Alexander Smith, shall be lawful and binding to all intents and purposes whatsoever, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

May receive bequest, &c.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said John C. Smith, shall and may be capable in law to recover any bequest, devise, legacy or other gift, made subsequently to the passage of this act in the name of John Smith, and intended for the said John Charles Alexander Smith, and nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to invalidate the right of the said John Charles Alexander Smith to receive, retain and dispose of the same at his pleasure, and in any manner not inconsistent with, or repugnant to the constitution and laws of the State of Maryland, or the United States of America.

CHAPTER 51.

Passed Feb
12, 1846.

An act entitled, an act to regulate the compensation of Jurors, Judges, and Clerks of Elections, and other officers in Baltimore County.

Jurors $1 50
per day

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the grand and petit jurors of the county aforesaid, shall receive for each days service, as jurors in the courts of said county, one dollar and fifty cents per day; provided, that any juror or jurors residing more than ten miles from the court-house of said county, shall receive compensation, at the rate of seven days for each week of his or their attendance as such, and such compensation shall be in lieu of any compensation now allowed said jurors by law.

Proviso.

Not lawful

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the sheriff of Baltimore county, to compel the attendance of any citizen of said county, as juror in the courts of said county, more than one term of said court, during the term of office of said sheriff.

Two dollars
per day

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the judges and clerks of election in said county, shall receive, in lieu of any