

land, a free man of color, has died leaving some estate to be distributed under his last will and testament, and appointing therein his son George Dunlop, now a resident of the District of Columbia, his executor; and whereas, from the good character the family of the said Joseph Dunlop, have borne in the county of Prince George's aforesaid, in which most of the members thereof have resided for so many years, a strong disposition is felt among the citizens thereof to extend to them such privilege, as will not materially interfere with the general policy of the laws of Maryland—Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That permission is hereby given to the said George Dunlop, of the District of Columbia, free ingress and egress into the said county of Prince George's, until the full and final settlement of the estate of the said Joseph Dunlop, of which as aforesaid, he has been appointed executor. CHAP. 66.
Permission given.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all laws inconsistent with this act be, and the same are to the extent of the privileges herein granted, hereby repealed. Repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall go into operation from and after the passage thereof. In force.

CHAPTER 66.

An act for the incorporation of Pledge Division Number Twelve, Sons of Temperance. Passed Feb 19, 1847.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Samuel Eichelberger, Eli Mobley, Samuel M. King, Thomas G. Robertson, Isaac HERSHEY, and others, the officers and members of Pledge Division Number Twelve, of the Order of Sons of Temperance attached to the Grand Division of the Order of the Sons of Temperance of Maryland, and their successors be, and they are hereby incorporated and made a body politic and corporate, by the name and number of Pledge Division Number Twelve, Sons of Temperance, of the State of Maryland, and by that name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and have a common seal, and the same, at their pleasure to alter, and be entitled to use all the powers and privileges incident to such corporation. Incorporated.
