

CHAP. 72. divide the real estate of William Tull, late of said county, deceased, and the proceedings had under the same, that the commission was executed with due regard to equity and in compliance with the wishes of all the parties concerned, but not strictly in compliance with the provisions of the act of Assembly of Maryland, passed December session, eighteen hundred and twenty, chapter one hundred and ninety-one, which provides, that the estate shall be divided among all the parties; and in order to heal the defect and make valid and legal the proceedings had by the commissioners in the above recited case—Therefore,

Judges of the county court to make valid proceedings of commissioners

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the proceedings had, and acts done by the commissioners appointed by Worcester county court, to divide the real estate of William Tull, late of said county, deceased, be, and the same shall be submitted to the judges of Worcester county court, or a majority of them, who, if in their judgment upon a hearing of the case thus submitted, think it would be to the interest of the parties concerned, that the proceedings had, and acts done by said commissioners should be made valid, then they are hereby authorised and empowered, to pass such order of confirmation as they may think requisite to make valid said proceedings had by said commissioners as aforesaid, and said order of confirmation, when so passed and entered of record as in other similar cases, shall be as binding upon all parties concerned, as if the same had been done in compliance with the act of Assembly of Maryland, of December session, eighteen hundred and twenty, chapter one hundred and ninety-one.

Passed Feb. 10, 1847.
Shall be binding, &c.

Time allowed.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That Ebenezer Bishop, husband of Sarah Bishop, one of the heirs of the said William Tull, be allowed until the first day of January, eighteen hundred and forty-eight, to comply with the provisions of said commissioners, or such further time as the said court in their discretion may deem proper.
