CHAPTER 89.

Passed Feb. 16, 1847. An act to incorporate the York Road Omnibus Company.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, a large number of persons residing on, and adjacent to the York Turnpike Road, between the city of Baltimore and Towsontown, in Baltimore county, experience considerable difficulty in procuring conveyance to and from the city aforesaid, and in order to afford greater facilities to the travelling community, have concluded to create a company by stock, and raise a capital sufficient to purchase an Omnibus and horses, and run the same daily from Towsontown to Baltimore, and back; and whereas, a meeting was held on the fifth day of January last, by said persons residing on and near said road as aforesaid, and at which time it was organized, and it was ascertained that a sufficient number of names was had to insure the object in view, it was deemed advisable to procure a charter from the General Assembly of Maryland, for the more permanent security of the company.—Therefore,

Incorporated.
