

ty or parties carrying on the same, by charter granted CHAP. 100.
by the Legislature of Maryland, shall be deprived of any chartered right, or otherwise injured by the provisions of this act, said party or parties shall be entitled, upon application in proper form, and to the proper authority, to have the damages sustained by them in consequence of such deprivation or injury assessed by a jury in the usual form for cases of damage made and provided; and said Potomac Bridge Company shall be answerable to said party or parties for said damages so ascertained, in any property held by such company, under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act Issues forbid.
contained shall be construed to confer any banking privileges upon said company; and the Legislature reserves Right reserv- to itself the right to alter, amend or repeal this charter ed.
at pleasure.

CHAPTER 100.

An act for the benefit of Lewis Fout and William Glessner, of Frederick County. Passed Feb. 27, 1847.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the court of Frederick county, or orphans court of said county, or any one of the judges of either of said courts, or any jurisdiction having authority to grant personal and final discharges to insolvent debtors, be and they are hereby authorised to grant a personal and final discharge to Lewis Fout and William Glessner, of said county, any law of this State to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, said Fout and Glessner comply with all the requisitions of the existing laws in relation to insolvent debtors, except that which requires the production of the certificate of the clerk of Frederick county court, that they have made no application for the benefit of the insolvent laws of this State, within two years next preceding the application contemplated by this act. Grant final discharges to insolvent debtors. Pro viso.