

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1847.

Cunningham and others, appellants, and George Schley, CHAP. 121.
Jacob Markell and Francis Thomas, appellees.

CHAPTER 120

A further supplement to the act entitled, an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session eighteen hundred and five. Passed Feb. 19, 1848.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, whenever hereafter the clerks of the several counties in this State and of Howard district, shall be called upon by any insolvent debtor for a transcript of notice to creditors, the said clerk so called upon shall give a condensed form of notice in substance as follows, which said notice when published for three successive months in some newspaper published in the county where such application shall be made, shall be deemed a sufficient notice to the creditors of such insolvent debtor: notice is hereby given, to the creditors of _____ that a personal discharge hath been granted to said debtor, and that the day of _____ being the first day of our county court next succeeding this date, hath been set apart for the final hearing in his case, where his creditors may attend, and shew cause, if any they have, why a final discharge shall not be granted said debtor.

CHAPTER 122

CHAPTER 121.

A supplement to an act entitled, an act for the promotion of education in Allegany county, by means of the poor school fund of said county, passed at December session eighteen hundred and thirty-six, chapter one hundred and six. Passed Feb. 21, 1848.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful for the commissioners of Allegany county to appoint or elect a treasurer to take charge of the free school funds belonging to Allegany county. Unlawful to elect treasurer