

1847.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 133. make oath before some justice of the peace in said county that the same is due, and that he has never received any part or parcel of the same, nor no one for him, to the best of his knowledge and belief.

CHAPTER 132.

Passed March 2, 1848. An act for the relief of Alexander H. Tyson, and Rebecca A. Tyson his wife.

Chancellor to decree sale.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the Chancellor of this State, upon its being made to appear to him in proof, in a proper suit to be instituted in the Court of Chancery for that purpose, that it will be for the benefit and advantage of all the parties interested, that the property mentioned and delivered in a deed from Mary Tyson to George S. Gibson, in trust, dated the twenty-ninth day of August, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, and recorded among the land records of Baltimore county, in liber T. K., number two-hundred and seventy-three, folio two-hundred and five, and so forth, shall be sold, to decree a sale of the same.

To order proceeds to be invested.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the Chancellor be and he is hereby authorised to order and direct the proceeds of said sale to be invested under and subject to the same trusts which are set out and declared in the said deed, in any investment in this State or in Louisiana, which may be satisfactorily shewn to him in proof to be for the interest and advantage of the parties beneficially interested therein.

CHAPTER 133.

Passed March 1, 1848. An act to allow Darius King, a free colored man, to bring into this State, his wife and four children.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this General Assembly, that Darius King, a free colored man, is desirous of removing from the city of Philadelphia to the city of Annapolis, his wife and four children; and