

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1847.

CHAPTER 154.

CHAP. 155.

An act for the benefit of Saint James Parish, in Baltimore County.

Passed
March 1, 1848.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the vestry of Saint James Parish in Baltimore county, to purchase and hold in fee simple to them and their successors, a lot of land adjoining the present parsonage lot of said parish, not exceeding five acres of land, to have and hold the same to them and their successors, for the use and benefit of said parish, any law, custom or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Authorised to hold lot of land

CHAPTER 155.

An act to authorise Commissioners therein appointed to execute a deed to Thomas Nelson, of Worcester County.

Passed
Feb. 29, 1848

WHEREAS, commissioners were appointed by an act passed eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred and nineteen, section six, to sell and dispose of the old poor house of Worcester county, and to give title thereto upon the payment of purchase money; and whereas, Thomas Nelson, the purchaser of said house and the parcel of land thereto attached, has found it impossible to get such commissioners, or a majority of them together, to execute such deed since the payment of said purchase money—Therefore,

Preamble

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That George Bishop, senior, Charles Parker and Peter Dickerson be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, to make and execute a good and sufficient deed of bargain and sale for the old poor house of Worcester county, and the lot of ground or parcel of land thereto attached and all its appurtenances to Thomas Nelson, his heirs and assigns forever; provided, that said commissioners shall be first satisfied that said Thomas Nelson has paid the full amount of the purchase money of said house and land thereto attached.

Deed to be executed.
