

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1847.

tees as hereinafter provided for, to appoint at their first meeting after the time of said election four trustees for such district, and the old trustees in every such district shall continue to act until the appointments herein provided for shall have been made.

CHAP. 172.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of said board of primary education to appoint, on the first Tuesday in May next, or as early thereafter as is practicable, a trustee for each and every school district of said county, with instructions to said trustees to give the notice now required by law, and to cause an election to be held in their respective school district on the last Monday in June annually, to elect four other trustees for the said school district, and report the result of such election to said board of primary education, on or before the fifteenth day of July following.

Board to appoint one, and citizens to appoint four trustees.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the board of commissioners of Worcester county shall, after the passage of this act, annually authorise and direct the agent of the school fund of said county to pay all orders of the said board of primary education, semi-annually, for the purposes of education, building school houses, rent of school houses, purchase of land for the site of school houses, and contingent expenses; provided the same in the aggregate shall not exceed the sum of thirty-five hundred dollars in any one year, unless that sum shall be satisfactorily ascertained by the said board of primary education and reported to the said commissioners to be sufficient for the objects and purposes aforesaid, then and in that case, upon the report and application of said board of primary education to said commissioners, they shall be and they are hereby authorised to allow any further amount of said school fund to be appropriated as aforesaid for the objects aforesaid, which the said board of primary education may require.

Expenses of schools, &c.—how paid.

Proviso.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the agent of the school fund of said county shall report to the commissioners of the said county the amount in his hands at the end of the last fiscal year, which may have been heretofore appropriated to the school districts in the said county by the said board of primary education for the purposes of education, and which not having been used remains in his hands for the benefit of the said several districts, which amount the said commissioners shall direct the said agent to add to the grand school fund of said county, and invest the same as said fund may now be invested.

Agent to report.
