CHAPTER 194.

An act authorising the establishment of Manufacturing Companies at Weverton. Passed March 7, 1848.

WHEREAS, By virtue of an act passed December session eighteen hundred and thirty-four, chapter one hundred and forty-four, entitled, an act to incorporate the Weverton Manufacturing company, much expense has been incurred in the development and improvement of an extensive and useful water power in Frederick and Washington counties; and whereas, sundry plans and associations are in contemplation for the erection of various manufactories upon desirable sites of said water power, and after the expiration of the present session no opportunity will be afforded for the incorporation of said association for two years—Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the expiration of the present session, any number of persons more than five and less than twenty desirous of establishing manufactories of any kind upon the water power above referred to, by filing their articles of agreement, with their respective names subscribed thereto, in the clerks' offices of Frederick and Washington counties, and having the same recorded therein, may be and they are hereby incorporated under such style and title as they may select. Incorporations authorised in certain cases.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the incorporations which may be established in pursuance of this act shall be entitled to all the rights, privileges and powers, and Corporate rights and liabilities.
