

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1847.

of her freedom papers, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. CHAP. 208.

CHAPTER 207.

An act for the benefit of Primary School District number four, in Frederick county.

Passed
March 7, 1848.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the board of inspectors of primary schools in Frederick county, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, in their discretion, to pay over to the trustees of primary school district number four, out of the general school funds of the county a sufficient sum of money, over and above their distributive share, to finish the school house in the said school district now in the course of erection, in place of the one destroyed by fire.

To pay an additional sum for building a school house.

CHAPTER 208.

An act for the benefit of William M. Morrison, of Washington city.

Passed
March 7, 1848

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of the school fund for Montgomery county, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered to pay to William M. Morrison, or to his order, the sum of seventy-four dollars and forty-one cents, with interest thereon from the first of March eighteen hundred and forty-three, the said amount to be paid out of the school fund for Berry's district of said county, in full for his account for books and stationary furnished to the school managers of the said Berry's district for the use of the pupils of said school; provided, that said sum of money is in the judgment of said commissioners due and owing to the said William M. Morrison; and provided also, that no appropriation of the aforesaid amount has been heretofore made to any school manager or other person, for the object contemplated in this act.

Account for books to be paid.

Proviso, May and personal estate.