CHAPTER 210.

An act authorising and empowering Joel Thomas, sheriff of Queen Anne's county, to execute a deed to Perry R. McNeille.

Passed
March 7, 1848.

WHEREAS, It has been represented to the General Assembly, that Thomas Sudler, Esquire, late sheriff of Queen Anne's county, by virtue of two executions issued out of Queen Anne's county court, at the suit of Aaron R. Levering and Sons and James Corner and Son, and to the said sheriff directed, commanding him out of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of one Andrew Bailey, to satisfy the debt and costs in said executions mentioned, sold to the said Aaron R. Levering and Sons and James Corner and Son, all the right, title, interest and estate of the said Andrew Bailey, being four undivided tenth-parts and one-fifth of one other tenth, of, in, to and out of three tracts or parcels of land lying and being in Queen Anne's county, called Clow's Chance Resurveyed, Wright's Forrest and Chicester, which descended from the late James Clow to his children and grand children, and which are particularly described in the return of the sheriff and the deed hereinafter mentioned, they being the highest bidders, and made return of said sale to the May term of Queen Anne's county court, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, and that said purchase money was fully paid and satisfied, that the said Aaron R. Levering and Sons and James Corner and Son, on the thirtieth day of January eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, sold and assigned, transferred and conveyed all the said interest, right and title so sold as aforesaid in the said premises, to a certain Perry R. McNeille, his heirs and assigns, by deed of
