

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That as soon as the bonds of the said James Urie shall be filed and approved by the court, the bonds of the said Samuel J. Jarman to the said minors, shall be delivered up to the said Samuel J. Jarman, and shall from thenceforth cease to be of any validity, force or effect, and if it shall appear to the court that the interest or any part of the interest on the said bonds shall have been paid by the said James Urie to the guardian of the said minors, the same shall be allowed to the said James Urie in the taking of his said bonds.

CHAP. 214.
New bonds to be taken.

CHAPTER. 214.

An act to incorporate the Health Insurance Company of Maryland.

Disposition of
March 7, 1848.
Passed

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Charles Dunlap, J. H. T. Jerome, J. Armitage, R. B. Porter, F. M. Baughman, R. C. Morse, S. C. Ridgway and all others who now are or may hereafter become officers and members of the Health Insurance Company of Maryland, be and they are hereby created and declared to be a community, corporation and body politic, by the name, style and title of the Health Insurance Company of Maryland, and by that name they and their successors shall and may at any time thereafter be capable in law to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto, defend and be defended in all or any courts of justice, and before all or any judges, officers or persons whatsoever, in all and singular actions, matters and demands whatsoever.

Incorporated.
Name and style.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said corporation to receive, retain or dispose of at pleasure, property, real and personal, all devises or bequests of any person or persons, bodies corporate or politic capable of making the same, and may have and use a common seal, and the same at their will and pleasure change, alter and make anew from time to time, as they may think best, and shall in general have and exercise all such rights, privileges and immunities as by law are incident and necessary to corporations, and which may be necessary to the corporation herein constituted, and to enable the members thereof to exercise all things concerning the design of this corporation, for Corporate powers, &c.