

1847.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 217.

CHAPTER 215.

Passed
March 8, 1848.

An act to divorce James C. Stevens, from his wife Emily Ann Stevens, of Queen Anne's County.

Divorced.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That James C. Stevens, be and he is hereby divorced from his wife Emily Ann Stevens, a vinculo matrimonii.

CHAPTER 216.

Passed
March 8, 1848.

An act to divorce Josephine Russell, of the city of Baltimore, from her husband William H. Russell.

Divorced.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Josephine Russell of the city of Baltimore, be and she is hereby divorced from her husband William H. Russell, a vinculo matrimonii.

CHAPTER 217.

Passed
March 8, 1848.

An act for the relief of Thomas Sater.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Thomas Sater, formerly of Baltimore county, but now of Carroll county, was some years since appointed by the commissioners of Baltimore county, a collector of tax in and for the collection district of said county; and whereas, a part of said collection district has since been included in and now constitutes a part of Carroll county; and whereas, some doubts exists as to the legal authority of said Sater to complete his collections— Therefore,

Empowered to collect.

SECTION. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Thomas Sater, as collector aforesaid, be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to complete his collections in said district, in the same manner that it would have been lawful for him to have done as if the act creating Carroll county had not been passed.

Terms of collection.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That Thomas Sater former collector of taxes as aforesaid, be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to collect any taxes or ba-