

CHAP. 220.

said justice shall certify and send a copy of said inquisition to the judges of said court, and said court shall thereupon order capias ad respondendum against said president, to which the name of the attorney general or his deputy for the county shall be put, and the same proceedings shall be had in said action as in other like suits at law, and if it shall appear that the neglect charged in said inquisition is well founded the said court shall give judgment according to the nature and aggravation of the neglect, and shall proceed to fine said president and company in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars.

Stock transferable—containing the

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for every of the said stockholders or proprietors to transfer his or her share or shares, by such deed and in such form as the said president and directors by bye law or rule shall direct, and if any person shall die intestate holding any share or shares of said stock, the administrator or administratrix or administrators of said intestate shall hold the same interest in said stock and be entitled to all the benefits thereof, including the power to vote for officers of said company, as the said intestate shall have held in his lifetime therein, and shall be and hereby are authorised and empowered to transfer the same or make sale thereof in his, her or their own name or names, and the same shall be subject to the same distribution or disposition as other personal property of said intestate.

Governor to appoint three persons to examine the construction of road, and report to him.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That so soon as the said company shall have finished or perfected said road for any distance not less than five miles, commencing at Frederick, and so from time to time any other like distance progressively, the president of said company shall give notice thereof to the governor of this State, who shall thereupon appoint three skillful and judicious persons to examine the same and report to him in writing, whether said road is constructed in a masterly, workmanlike manner, according to the true intent and meaning of this act, and if their report shall be in the affirmative, then the governor shall by license, under the seal of the State, permit and authorise said president and directors to erect and fix such and so many toll gates across the said road as will be necessary to collect the tolls or duties herein granted to said company.

When to be commenced & when to be completed.

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That if said company shall not proceed to construct said road within three years after the passing of this act, and shall not within