

CHAP. 222. this State to require and compel every executor or administrator to whom they or the register of wills of their county may have granted letters testamentary or of administration, to return his inventory or inventories, and render his administration accounts to such court at the time or times required by law, and in case any executor or administrator shall fail to do so, his letters testamentary or administration may in the discretion of such court be revoked, and the court may if there be no remaining executor or administrator of the deceased, appoint a new administrator.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the returns and payments of register of wills on account of the tax imposed by the act of eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter two hundred and thirty-seven, and its supplements, shall hereafter be made at the time, in the manner and under the penalties prescribed by the second and third sections of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-five, chapter seventy-one, and the commissions allowed to said registers upon such payments shall be the same as are fixed by the third section of the said last mentioned act.

SEC. 13. Be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to allow to the executor or administrator any commission on the amount of the real estate returned in the aforesaid inventory or inventories.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the fourth section of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter two hundred and thirty-seven, and the second, third and fourth sections of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-five, chapter two hundred and two, and so much of the second section of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter two hundred and thirty-seven, as makes it the duty of executors and administrators to lodge certain information with the levy court or commissioners of the county or Howard district or the appeal tax court of Baltimore, be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the several and respective orphans courts of this State to require every executor or administrator to return his inventory or inventories, and render his administration accounts to such court at the time or times required by law, and in case any executor or administrator shall fail to do so, his letters testamentary or administration may in the discretion of such court be revoked, and the court may if there be no remaining executor or administrator of the deceased, appoint a new administrator.

Duties and liabilities of administrators.

Registers payments when to be made.

Where there is property liable to this tax, and persons entitled to administer shall to do so.

Not to allow commission on real estate.

Repealed.

PHI
-m
to
An
jo
pr
be hu
Jas
(S
Mur
the p eral
place
day
sons
deleg
for seve
turn respo
agree
this i
St ting
third
first
the f trict
and
and
com
in lik
St
missi
the v
of ea
alore
of v
high
the n respo
one qual
St ber
voted shall perso