

1847.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 226.

Justices not to renew within one year after first return.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in all cases where a writ of venditioni exponas shall be returned by any constable to any justice of the peace, and the property or any part thereof mentioned in such writ shall remain unsold and the debt not fully satisfied, it shall be the duty of the justice of the peace to whom such return shall be made to enter the same with the date thereof on their docket, and thereupon to deliver the said writ of venditioni exponas to the constable, who shall take such proceedings in all respects under the said writ so delivered to him for the period of one year from the date of the said return as might or could he had in virtue of renewals, from time to time, of such writ of venditioni exponas, and that within the said period of one year from the return as aforesaid of any writ of venditioni exponas, it shall not be lawful for any justice of the peace to issue any second writ of venditioni exponas or any renewals thereof, and that under the said original writ of venditioni exponas, the constable shall remain under the same legal obligation to sell the property mentioned therein and to make the plaintiff's claim, and his official bond shall be liable to the plaintiff in any such execution for a non-performance of duty in the same manner as it now is under existing laws where such writ may be renewed every forty days; provided, that nothing in this act shall be so construed as to effect the provisions of the act of Assembly, passed at December session eighteen hundred and forty-five, chapter three hundred and seventy-nine, entitled, an act relating to constables, and the estates and fees due to deceased constables, and for other purposes.

Proviso.

Inconsistent acts repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, so far as the same relates to Kent county, and that this act shall go into operation from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 226.

Passed March 8, 1848.

An act to incorporate the Cambridge Steam Milling and Manufacturing Company of Dorchester County.

Incorporated.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the persons who shall as hereinafter mentioned become subscribers to the capital stock hereby