

CHAPTER 233.

CHAP. 233.

A further supplement to an act entitled, an act for the appointment of commissioners for the regulation and improvement of Salisbury, in Somerset and Worcester Counties.

Passed
March 9, 1848.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act entitled, an act to provide for the appointment of commissioners for the regulation and improvement of Salisbury, in Somerset and Worcester counties, passed at November session eighteen hundred and twelve, be and the same is hereby revived and declared to be in full force, except such parts as are inconsistent with this act.

Revived.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That seven judicious and discreet persons residing in the said town or within five miles thereof, shall be elected by ballot on the fourth Monday in April in the year eighteen hundred and forty-eight, at the house of Edward Dymock, Esquire, in the said town, by the free white male inhabitants thereof above the age of one and twenty years, and having resided within the limits of the said town for the space one year next preceding the election, and by such other persons as are hereinafter authorised to vote at such election, and the seven persons who shall appear to have the greatest number of votes at the close of the election shall be declared to be duly elected the commissioners of the said town, and shall have and exercise the several powers and authorities delegated to them by this act, and every free white male person above the age of one and twenty years, and having real estate within the limits of the said town, shall likewise have a right to vote in the election of the said commissioners, notwithstanding such person may not be resident therein.

Commissioners to be elected.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall meet on the first Monday of May next after their election, at such place as a majority of them shall fix upon in said town, and shall arrange and number themselves into three classes by lot, the first class to consist of three, the second class of two and the third class of two, the office of the first class to expire at the end of one year from their election, the office of the second class at the expiration of two years from their election, and the office of the third class at the expiration of three years from their election, and the vacancy thus successively occasioned by the expiration of the Classification of commissioners authorised.