

CHAP. 233.

time of service of such commissioners shall be supplied by the election of a like number of commissioners to serve for three years from the time of their election respectively, to be made by the voters qualified to vote as aforesaid, at such time and place as the commissioners shall appoint, in said town.

Limits of the town defined.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of this act the limits of the said town shall be as follows: beginning at the Mills called Bayly's Mills, belonging to C. and H. Humphreys, thence with the pond up to a branch called Middle Neck Branch, thence up said branch to a bridge called Middle Neck Bridge, it being a bridge on the road that divides Somerset and Worcester counties, thence down the said road to the southwest corner of Mrs. Sally Huston's lands thence running with the lines of said Huston's lands to the southwest corner of a lot of ground purchased of said Huston by the citizens of Salisbury for a burying ground, thence due south until it intersects the branch on which the mills formerly called Winder's, now C. and H. Humphreys, are erected, thence down by and with the said branch to the centre of said mill dam, being on the county road dividing said counties as aforesaid, thence with said county road to the southeast corner of Shiles C. Seabreeze's lot, thence with the southern line of said lot to the southwest corner thereof, thence with a line drawn to the southeast corner of Doctor William H. Rider's lot, thence with the southern line of said Rider's lot to the southwest corner thereof, thence with a line drawn to the Saw Mill owned by Jehu Parsons, Esquire, from thence with the branch forming his mill pond to the northwest corner of a lot belonging to George Maddux, Esquire, thence with the northern line of said lot to the county road leading from the State of Delaware, thence with said road until it intersects a line drawn out from the place of beginning.

Days of meeting.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall meet on the day when the annual election shall be held, and on such other days as they may deem expedient.
