CHAPTER 239.

An act to revive the act to incorporate the Town of Saint Michaels, in Talbot County, passed at November session eighteen hundred and four, chapter eighty-two.

Passed
March 9, 1848.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly of Maryland; that the inhabitants of the Town of Saint Michaels, in Talbot county, on the first Monday of January in the year eighteen hundred and forty-six, elected five commissioners for said town and a bailiff, agreeably to the sixth section of the act of the year eighteen hundred and four, chapter eighty-two, but that said commissioners and bailiff failed to qualify agreeably to the requirement of the said act of assembly incorporating said town; and whereas, doubts are entertained as to the power of said inhabitants now to hold an election for said officers, Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all the powers, privileges and advantages conferred by said act of assembly are hereby declared to be in full force and effect, and that the inhabitants of said Town of Saint Michaels, in Talbot county, qualified to vote by the said original act, be and they are hereby authorised and required, after first appointing two of their number to act as judges of election and one of their number to act as clerk, to hold an election for five commissioners and bailiff for said town on the first Monday in April in the year eighteen hundred and forty-eight, at the school house in said

Inhabitants to elect five commissioners and bailiff.
