

1847.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 242.

CHAPTER 241.

Passed
March 9, 1848.

A further supplement to the act entitled, an act imposing a tax on the commissions allowed to Trustees and Receivers to aid in paying the debts of the State, passed at December session eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter one hundred and eighty-seven.

Bond of trustees and receivers to be put in suit for neglect to pay tax.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, on the failure of any trustee or receiver appointed by the chancellor under the act to which this is a supplement, to make payment of the tax as required by said act, it shall be the duty of the register of the high court of chancery to give notice to the deputy attorney general of the county or district where such trustee or receiver may reside, who shall thereupon bring suit on the bond of such trustee or receiver so failing to make such payment.

CHAPTER 242.

Passed
March 9, 1848.

An act relating to applications for the benefit of the Insolvent Laws of this State, in Montgomery County.

County court not to deny benefit of insolvent laws because of absence of the stamps.

Proviso

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all pending applications for the benefit of the insolvent laws of this State, or on application hereafter to be made for the benefit of the insolvent laws as aforesaid in this State, where the necessary stamps have not been provided or used by the applicant as aforesaid, either in the deed to his trustee, his bond for his personal appearance or his trustee's bond, it shall not be ground or cause for the county courts to dismiss the same; provided, the applicant or applicants as aforesaid shall pay to the clerk of the county courts for the use of the Treasurer of the State of Maryland, the amount of stamp tax as is now required by the revenue laws of this State properly chargeable for said deed, bond or bonds, or either of them or all of them, as the case may be, before the expiration of the term of the county courts to which the applicant or applicants is or are bound to appear by the condition of his bond for his personal appearance taken in his or under his application as aforesaid, and shall furnish the county courts with the clerk's certificate that he has complied with the provisions of this act.
