

CHAPTER 243.

CHAP. 244.

An act entitled, a further supplement to an act entitled, an act relating to Negroes and Slaves. Passed. March 9, 1849.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, all guardians, executors and trustees heretofore or hereafter appointed, or any one of them residing in this State, appointed by last will and testament or otherwise in this State, or any adjoining State or District, are hereby authorised and permitted to bring into this State from any adjoining State or District any slave or slaves, being slaves for life, confided to them in trust; provided, Proviso. that a list of such slaves shall be made out by said guardian, executors or trustees, or any one of them, within thirty days after their removal, and recorded in the clerk's office in the county to which said slaves may be at any time removed under this act, with an affidavit thereto attached that the same is a true and faithful list or lists of said slaves, and that he or she hath not removed the same into this State for the purpose of sale, and that they are slaves for life.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall not be so construed as to repeal the colonization tax as now provided by law. Not to repeal colonization tax.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed. Inconsistent acts repealed.

CHAPTER 244.

A further supplement to the act entitled, an act to regulate sales by Public Auction. Passed March 9, 1849.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no duties shall be chargeable upon any goods, wares, merchandize or other property sold by any auctioneer at private sale on the days of his public auction, unless the same be sold at the place of his public auction, or unless the same be part of what was offered for sale at said public auction, or was advertised to be sold at said public auction. When duties are not chargeable.