

specified in the first section of said act of December session eighteen hundred and forty-six, shall be chargeable on all goods, wares, merchandise or other property sold by any auctioneer at private sale on the day of his public auction.

CHAP. 41.

CHAPTER 40.

An act supplementary to the several acts relating to the Poor School Fund of Cecil County.

Passed Feb. 1, 1848.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the justices of the Orphans court of Cecil county, to publish or cause to be published annually, in some newspaper printed in said county, a full and detailed statement of the condition of the poor school fund of said county, showing in every such annual statement, in what manner any and every portion of said fund may, at the time of the publication thereof, be invested.

Orphans court to publish, &c.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be the duty of the justices of the Orphans court of Cecil county, to pay or cause to be paid in quarterly payments, if demanded, whatever sums of money may be due for the tuition of the poor scholars of said county.

Orphans court to pay.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the first statement made under the first section of this act, shall be published on or before the first Saturday in May, eighteen hundred and forty-eight.

When the first statement is to be published.

CHAPTER 41.

An act authorising the Conversion of Maryland Sterling Bonds in Currency Stock.

Passed Jan. 27, 1848.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That upon the application of the holder of any of the sterling bonds of this State, and upon the surrender and cancelling of the same, and of their proper coupons, the commissioner of loans, shall be and he is hereby authorised and required, to issue to, and in the name of said applicant, or other person named by him, the ordinary loan office

Sterling bonds to be converted into Currency.