

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the president or other proper officer of the banks and other incorporated institutions in the several counties and Howard district and the city of Baltimore, and they are hereby directed to furnish annually on the first day of March, to the levy court or commissioners or appeal tax court of each county, district or city in which any of its stockholders may reside, a list of the said stockholders respectively, so far as the place of their residence may be known to said president or other officer as aforesaid, together with the amount of stock in said banks, institutions or companies held by each of said stockholders, but such list need not be furnished by any corporation to the levy court, board of commissioners or appeal tax court of any county or city with which the said corporation may have made an arrangement for the payment of the county or city tax on its capital stock without reference to its individual stockholders.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That stocks and securities held by or for the use of any incorporated charitable institution of this State shall be hereafter exempt from taxation for either State, county or city purposes to the amount of ten thousand dollars; provided, that any such institution holding property already exempted from taxation shall be entitled under this section to no further exemption than will make the total amount of its property exempted equal in value to fifteen thousand dollars.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerks of the several county courts and of Howard district court, to return to the levy court, commissioners or appeal tax court, as the case may be, on the first day of March in each and every year, a list of all judgments and decrees which shall not have been before returned, together with the amount for which the same were obtained, and the names of the persons holding the same, in order that such judgments and decrees may be assessed at their true value by the said levy courts, commissioners or appeal tax court, as the case may be; provided, that judgments obtained on causes of action that accrued before the first day of January eighteen hundred and forty-two shall not be assessed by said levy courts, commissioners or appeal tax court, nor shall such judgments be assessed as shall have been obtained on any bond, note or other cause of action already valued and assessed, and the said clerks shall be allowed respectively the sum of CHAP. 266.

To furnish list of stockholders with places of residence.

Exempted from taxation.

Provide.

County clerks to furnish list of judgments, &c., &c.

Provide.